Germany's Palestinian Refugee Reminate Unlimited Opinion Raim was popular in English media in September with Prime Minister Angela Merkel's departure and tears. Now her family is also in a fair run

In March 2015, a German Prime Minister spoke in a meeting that some refugees were also present in. Rame expressed his concern about the uncertainty of her own family to the voice manger in this meeting. However, when Merkel said in his reply that "Germany can not accept all the refugees", the camel's eyes were released. After that Merkel tried to announce that.

After that, Angela Merkel's coverage of this cold response was published in Internet pages. Rim, who was 14 years old, talked about the attention of the Believers and he was famous all over Germany.

The German news agency, McLenburg Foreumman, has reported a report about the city's city of Rostok, according to the urban council, that the Palestinian Refugee Rum Sawlund has received the unlimited chance of staying in Germany by the German government.

Local officials have also said in the northern city Rootok that the REM can now live in Germany and live.

Now from the heart of the Rim, there are concerns and fears that will depart from Germany. Based on the report, he is now 17 years old, according to the German law, his family has also been in danger of expulsion. At this point, Rim's family can also present Germany's commitment to citizenship.
